

Oh, Oh, Oh! OTES

Are You Ready?

When: Tuesday, August 6, 3013

Time: 8:30am - 3:30pm

(Lunch on your own at one of the many restaurants on/near the Medina Square)

Where: MCSESC Lower Level Conference Room

124 W. Washington St., Medina

Cost: $60

CEUs: 0.6

Registration: Medina County Schools' Educational Service Center
Spring/Summer Staff Development
Catalog: <http://www.medina-esc.org/professionaldevelopment7492.aspx>

Stacie Rastok, National Institute for Excellence in Teaching (NIET)
Certified OTES Trainer

Kim Tomashefski, National Institute for Excellence in Teaching (NIET)
Certified OTES Trainer

For more information: 330.723.6393,
Ext. 105

- ✓ Implementation of the new Ohio Teacher Evaluation System (OTES) begins with the start of the 2013-2014 school year.
- ✓ As an administrator or teacher, are you prepared for the changes?
- ✓ Join us to “fine tune” your understanding of OTES.

- Hear more about State law and best practice as they relate to OTES
- Explore the alignment of Ohio's Standards for Educators with OTES expectations
- Delve into the specifics of the OTES rubric
- Dissect the rubric to define what a proficient teacher “looks like” and “sounds like”
- Learn to prepare for pre-conferences, observations, and post-conferences
- Examine the differences between proficient, developing, and accomplished ratings
- Identify documentation of teacher practice that supports the OTES process

Medina County Schools'
Educational Service Center

